

Sing Praises to the Lord

Dayton Walker

Ancient Hebrew Melody, harm. David Lehman

The musical score consists of four staves of music in common time (indicated by '3') and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The first staff uses a treble clef, the second a bass clef, the third a treble clef, and the fourth a bass clef. The music is divided into four sections, each starting with a different staff. The lyrics are integrated into the music, with some lines appearing below the staff and others above it. The lyrics are as follows:

1. Hal - le - lu - jah, hal-le - lu - jah! Sing prais-es to the Lord. Bless - ed
2. Let the ris - ing sun in the sky Sing prais-es to our King. All the
