The First Noel

transcribed by John Hutchens

harm. John Stainer

1. The first No – el the an–gel did say was to cer tain poor
2. They look – ed up and saw a star shin ing in the
3. And by the light of that same star, three wise – men
4. This star drew nigh to the north – west, o'er Beth – le –
5. Then en – tered in those wise – men three, full rev – 'rent–
6. Then let us all with one ac – cord sing prais – es shep herds in fields as they lay, in fields where they lay keep ing their east, be – yond them far; and to the earth it gave great came from coun – try far; to seek for a king was their in – ·hem it took its rest, and there it did both stop and ·ly up – on their knee, and of – fered there in His pres – to our heav'n – ly Lord, that hath made heav'n and earth of sheep, On a cold win–ter's night that was so deep.

light, And so it con – tin – ued both day and night.
·tent, And to fol – low the star wher – ev – er it went.
stay Right o – ver the place where Je – sus lay.
·ence Their gold and myrrh and frank – in – cense.
naught, And with His blood man – kind hath bought.

No – el, No – el, No – el, No – el! Born is the King of Is – ra – el.