

The King Shall Come

tr. John Brownlie

Gesangbuch der Herzogl., Württemberg

1. The Kingshall come when morning dawns and light tri - um - phant breaks,
2. O bright - er than that glorious morn shall this fair morn - ing be,
3. Then let the end - less bliss be - gin, by wea - ry saints fore - told, when beau - ty gilds the eastern hills and life to joy a - wakes. O when Christ, our King, in beau - ty comes, and we His face shall see. The when right shall triumph o - ver wrong, and truth shall be ex - tolled. The bright - er than the ris - ing morn when He, vic - to - rious, rose and King shall come when morn - ing dawns and earth's dark night is past; O King shall come when morn - ing dawns, and light and beau - ty brings; "Hail, left the lone - some place of death, de - spite the rage of foes.

haste the ris - ing of that morn, the day that e'er shall last.
Christ the Lord!" Your peo - ple pray, come quick - ly, King of kings!
